Were is a witch most happy? in a broom factory

Why did the foot smile? he was toe happy

Why are frogs so happy? because they eat whatever bugs them

Haman goes to Achashverosh.

MORDECHAI'S VIEW OF THE PURIM STORY

I am Mordechai a very good Jew,
You know me and love me and I love you.
I am a descendant of the Great King Saul,
I made wicked Haman cringe and crawl.
I uncovered the traitors Bigtan and Teresh,
I defied Haman and his wicked wife Zeresh.
I rode on a horse, with a crown on my head!
And hanged wicked Haman and his sons in my stead.
So the Jews of Shushan and lands one twenty seven
Were happy and thankful to our Father in Heaven.
And now, as then, until the sun grows cold
We celebrate Purim with gladness untold.

QUEEN: ESTHERS VIEW OF THE PURIM STORY

*I am Queen Esther, beloved by all,
Mordechai's cousin, of the House of King Saul.*

We lived in Shushan and children we taught

To love the Torah, fear no one and naught.

When one day they took me to the palace royal,

To G-d and my people I remained always loyal.

*Of the sumptuous feasts I never did eat,
My diet was seeds, my figure kept neat.*

*When Haman did plot my people to slay,
I risked my life his bloody hand to stay.*

*For all our people I ordered a fast,
The Fast of Esther three days to last.*

We gathered the children back to the schools,

And prayed to G-d, till our tears made pools.

Our prayers were answered and we lived to tell

The story of Purim, you all know so well,

With Shallach Monos and gifts, and last but not least

To celebrate Purim - with a jolly good feast.
